

BADassery

SPRING 2024 EDITION

Frequently Asked Questions

Will everything take place online?

We designed the BA to be a hybrid program, including opportunities for both in person and online work. All biz building and team trainings will take place online. Lessons can be scheduled both in person (in New York) and online, depending on teacher availability. Industry Masterclasses will take place in New York City. You can also complete the program completely online if you prefer.

What is the length of the program?

The BADassery Spring 2024 Edition begins on Monday, February 12, 2024 and continues until Sunday, May 19th for 14 total weeks.

Can I choose which coach to work with privately?

The program is most effective when you switch between teachers! Tim and Jenna work together outside of your lessons to make sure we're providing the variety, structure, and support that you need. We recommend alternating every other lesson between teachers.

What is the Power Strategy Session?

These are 45 min sessions (in person in NYC or online) with both coaches, so that we can hear what you're working on and create a customized game plan together. You'll also walk away with a TON of new song suggestions.

Power Strategy Sessions are happening the week of Feb 19th. See your booking email for scheduling. If you don't see something that works with your schedule, please email us at hello@innovativevoicestudio.com, and we'll find a time that works.

How do I book private sessions?

After registering, you can visit our online calendar from the BADassery Dashboard. There you will see Tim and Jenna's availability for both in person and zoom lessons. Availability is listed for the next 30 days. Each artist receives four 45 minute lessons (included in your package).

What's the online community like?

We use a private Slack channel to communicate outside of the voice studio. Each person has access to many channels and the ability to participate in group conversations or chat with one or both coaches via private chat. You'll receive an invitation before the start of the program.

Do I have to commit to the whole program?

In order to get the most out of this accountability based program and to safely encourage community building, we require a commitment to the entire 14 weeks.

What do I do if I have to miss a Masterclass, Biz Building, or Team Training?

All virtual events are video recorded so that you can watch back at your convenience.

What if I only want to take private voice sessions?

If the full BADassery program isn't right for you at the time, you might love Voice Gym. This is a subscription based program where you get a minimum of one discounted session per month. You can also book more than once per month at your discounted rate!

I'm really digging the idea of this program, but cashflow is a little tight. What are my options?

Financial aid is available for qualified artists through our Artist Expansion Fund. Please head here to apply! The deadline is Feb 4th, 2024.
